International Atomic Energy Agency

ON BEHALF OF IAEA TALENT ACQUISITION

Dear Permanent Mission Representatives,

In regards to the International Atomic Energy Agency's efforts to increase visibility of its vacancies among well qualified applicants, including women and candidates from developing Members States, we would greatly appreciate it if you could forward this notice to qualified professionals worldwide and to pertinent professional organizations /associations in your home countries.

Webinar of the Month

The International Atomic Energy Agency is conducting its first recruitment webinar on Opportunities for Engineers at the IAEA. This online event will take place on Wednesday, 23 March 2016 at 17h (Central European Time). This webinar will present the IAEA as an employer of choice to professionals with various expertise in engineering, including chemical, civil, electrical, industrial, mechanical, mining, structural and reactor physics engineering, among other areas. Topics covered will include a brief introduction of the Technical Departments within the IAEA, the professional perspective of engineers currently employed at the organization and information on available opportunities. This webinar is part of our monthly webinar series focusing on multiple topics of interest to potential applicants across Member States. Registration is free! Please sign up here: <https://goo.gl/w0udap>
